Northern New Mexico invites you to see one of her truly unique listings. Located in Lyden/Velarde New Mexico, this 1999 home has been completely renovated inside and out. Guests are welcomed by an expansive front yard with an electronic, solar-assisted gate. Upon entering the property, owners may choose to utilize the oversized garage, outdoor parking, or the carport located in the rear of the house. In the center of this 1 acre lot is a 3 bed, 2 full-bath beauty of a home. Exterior features begin with a Propanel roof, fresh painted wood siding, solid and immaculately installed concrete slabs, a manicured lawn, and irrigation banks. The entire property is fully fenced and boasts young trees and rose bushes. In addition, seller has installed frost-free water spigots at several corners of the front and rear of the home. Entering the home by the front door, guests and owners alike are welcomed by the entrance foyer and open dining room and kitchen. The dining room has a new pellet stove that can easily be removed during summer months. Temperature regulation occurs via a digital thermostat and both refrigerated air and furnace. Recessed lighting, ambient lighting for the kitchen, thoughtful niches and full closets are just some of the amenities included in the floor plan. A water softener has also been professionally installed in the home. Just 20 minutes from Taos, and 40 minutes from Los Alamos and Santa Fe, country living is now a reality. Please request
